

Emily Craven's Biography

Emily has served on staff at WHPC since 1989 and loves leading the congregation, choirs and worship teams in making music that brings glory to God. She finds joy in building community within her music ensembles and helping members of all ages develop their musical gifts.

Emily also enjoys helping people lead stronger and more fit lives through Jazzercise and has been an instructor since 2015.